

April 27, 2007

MEMORANDUM

TO: Vice Presidents
Deans
Department Chairs/School and Center Directors

FROM: Heinz Bulmahn
Vice Provost for Research and
Dean of the Graduate College

SUBJECT: Nominations for 2007 Olscamp Research Award

I am pleased to distribute this call for nominations for the 2007 Olscamp Research Award. This honor is awarded annually to a member of the BGSU faculty for outstanding scholarly or creative accomplishments during the previous three-year period. For purposes of this award, these accomplishments may be understood in terms of refereed presentations of scholarly papers or publications (books, monographs, externally funded grants and contracts, articles, etc.); musical compositions/arrangements or concerts/recitals, dramatic or visual art works presented at national or international meetings or exhibitions; patentable or licensable discoveries or creations of major significance. A more complete description of the criteria and selection process for the award may be found on the reverse side of this memorandum.

Nominations will be accepted any time on/or before July 16, 2007 in the Office of Sponsored Programs and Research, 106 University Hall. Nominations are welcome from all members of the University community, alumni, and persons external to the University. The SPAR office will solicit the required supporting materials from the nominees for consideration by the review committee.

I encourage you and your faculty to nominate your most outstanding researchers.

The Olscamp Research Award

The Award

The Olscamp Research Award is awarded annually to a member of the BGSU faculty for outstanding scholarly or creative accomplishments during the previous three-year period. For purposes of this award, these accomplishments are understood in terms of such products as:

1. Refereed publications (books, monographs, articles, compositions, etc.).
2. Refereed presentations of scholarly papers, musical compositions/arrangements, or visual art works at national or international meetings.
3. Concerts/recitals, recordings, exhibits, and dramatic presentations.
4. Externally-funded grant projects.
5. Patentable or licensable discoveries or creations.

Criteria

The quality of research is evaluated in terms of several criteria:

1. Significance within the discipline.
2. National and international import.
3. Artistic or scholarly creativity.
4. Contribution to knowledge, culture, or professional practice.

Nominations

1. Nominations may be submitted by all members of the faculty. Self-nominations are welcome.

Supporting Documentation

Upon receipt of nominations, the selection committee will request the following documentation from each nominee:

1. Nominations are to be accompanied by the following:
 - a. an account (one-three pages, single-spaced maximum) of the nominee's research accomplishments over the last three years.
 - b. A copy of the nominee's up-to-date vitae.
 - c. A maximum of five external review documents. These may include:
 - 1) published reviews of nominee's work,
 - 2) reviews of grant proposals, and
 - 3) solicited letters from experts in the discipline.

Selection Procedure

The Vice President for Academic Affairs and Vice President for University Advancement select the recipient of the award based upon the recommendation of a selection committee chaired by the Associate Vice Provost for Research Administration of the Sponsored Programs and Research office.