Bowling Green State University Police Department Tow Procedure

- c) Firms that do not comply with all provisions of division (1) will be removed from the list until deficiencies are corrected.
- d) In conjunction with ORC 4513.66, the firm's tow/wrecker operator must remove any glass or other injurious substances, including liquids, dropped from a vehicle.
- e) A firm that does any of the following shall be subject to suspension or removal from the tow list for a period of time as determined by the Chief of Police or their designee:
 - i) Violate the provisions of division (3)
 - ii) Employ a tow/wrecker operator who has been arrested for any crime involving property in their possession as a result of their tow/wrecker duties
 - iii) Fail to accept tow requests by the Police or Parking offices or to perform them in a timely manner on four or more occasions within one year
 - iv) Disregard the duty to clean up a site in accordance with ORC 4513.66
- f) Not answering when contacted is considered a refusal, and the firm will be placed on the bottom of the rotation.
- g) In the event of an emergency or other special event the Bowling Green State University Police will dictate the companies used and this will not be deemed part of the tow rotation.

*Regular tows are considered those that do not require additional equipment and/or excessive labor in order to take possession of the identified vehicle.

If the identified vehicle to be towed is hooked up to the tow company truck or is in the process of being hooked up, the tow driver will have the discretion to charge this fee or take the vehicle. In all other circumstances the BGSU Police Officer at the scene will make the determination if the tow company truck is eligible for this no tow/drop fee. At no time will a BGSU Police Officer or Parking employee hold a vehicle for a tow company without probable cause and legal justification to do so.
