

Name _____

Date _____

Marshmallow Catapult: Researching the Problem

Directions: Research the history of catapults and their construction. You will then use that information to design your own catapult using the materials available.

What is a catapult?

Sketch some pictures of the catapults you find in the space below:

How does a catapult get its energy to launch items?

What types of materials do you think you'll be using for the different parts of your catapult?
