(a) Responsibility of University. To the extent provided by Chapter 2743 of the Ohio Revised Code, University shall be responsible for loss, cost, damage, liability, claim, expense (including reasonable legal fees and expenses, but only to the extent provided by Ohio Rev. (c) Indemnification Procedures for Third Party Claims. In any case where the person seeking indemnification under this Agreement (herein referred to as the “Indemnified Party”) seeks indemnification for a third party claim, suit or proceeding (herein referred to as a “Third Party Claim”), such indemnification will be conditioned on such Indemnified Party’s compliance with the following procedures:

(i) The Indemnified Party will give prompt written notice to the person from whom indemnification is sought (herein referred to as the “Indemnifying Party”) of each claim for indemnification under this Agreement, specifying the amount and nature of the claim (herein referred to as a “Notice of Claim”). Provided that such Notice of Claim is given (unless the failure to provide such Notice of Claim does not prejudice the interests of the Indemnifying Party), and the Indemnifying Party has not contested in writing the Indemnified Party’s right to indemnification as set forth below, the Indemnifying Party, at its own expense and using counsel of its own choosing, will promptly defend, contest and otherwise protect against any such claim, suit or proceeding. If within a reasonable time period following the receipt of a Notice of Claim, the Indemnifying Party contests in writing the Indemnified Party’s right to indemnification with respect to the Third Party Claim described in the Notice of Claim, the Indemnified Party will defend against and contest such Third Party Claim.

(ii) If the Indemnifying Party is defending against the Third Party Claim, the Indemnified Party may, but will not be obligated to, participate in the defense of any such Third Party Claim, suit or proceeding, at its own expense and using counsel of its own choosing, but the Indemnifying Party will be entitled to control the defense thereof unless the Indemnified Party has relieved the Indemnifying Party from liability with respect to the particular matter. The Indemnified Party will cooperate and provide such assistance as the Indemnifying Party reasonably may request in connection with the Indemnifying Party’s defense and will be entitled to recover from the Indemnifying Party the reasonable costs of providing such assistance. The Indemnifying Party will inform the Indemnified Party on a regular basis of the status of such claim, suit or proceeding and the Indemnifying Party’s defense thereof.

(iii) In any Third Party Claim the defense of which is controlled by the Indemnifying Party, the Indemnifying Party will not, without Indemnified Party’s prior written consent, compromise or settle such claim, suit or proceeding if: (y) such compromise or settlement would impose an injunction or other equitable relief upon the Indemnified Party; or (z) such compromise or settlement does not include the third party’s release of the Indemnified Party from all liability relating to such claim, suit or proceeding for which the Indemnified Party is entitled to be indemnified.

(iv) If the Indemnifying Party fails to timely defend, contest, or otherwise protect against any such claim, suit, or proceeding, and fails to contest in writing the Indemnified Party’s right to indemnification, the Indemnified Party may, but will not be obligated to, defend, contest or otherwise protect against the same.

(v) The obligation of a party to indemnify the other party’s officers, directors, employees and agents in accordance with this Section 13 may be enforced exclusively by the other party and nothing herein will be construed to grant such officers, directors, employees and agents any individual rights, remedies, obligations or liabilities with respect to the parties. The parties may amend or modify this Agreement in any respect without the consent of such officers, directors, employees and agents.

(vi) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Paragraph 13(c), any defense and/or indemnification of University shall be consistent with Ohio law, including the roles of the Attorney General of Ohio and the Ohio Court of Claims.

14. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

   TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, NO PARTY SHALL HAVE ANY LIABILITY FOR ANY INDIRECT, SPECIAL, PUNITIVE OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, LOSS OF PROFIT OR BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES, WHETHER OR NOT THE PARTY WAS ADVISED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, THAT THIS LIMITATION OF LIABILITY WILL NOT APPLY TO ANY CLAIM ARISING FROM THE GROSS NEGLIGENCE OR WILLFUL MISCONDUCT OF A PARTY, ITS DIRECTORS, OFFICERS, EMPLOYEES, AGENTS OR CONTRACTORS, ANY CLAIM ARISING FROM BREACH OF THE CONFIDENTIALITY PROVISIONS OF THIS AGREEMENT.

   University is a tax exempt entity and has been fully advised by University’s counsel and/or tax consultant of any tax implications resulting from this Agreement.

16. ASSIGNMENT/BINDING EFFECT

   This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their successors and permitted assigns provided, however, that neither this Agreement, nor any of the rights and obligations hereunder, may be assigned, transferred or delegated by either party, without the prior written consent of the other party; and provided further, however, that this Agreement may be assigned by either party without the consent of the other party hereto to any Affiliate of the assigning party.

17. TERMINATION

   (a) If a party breaches any material covenant in this Agreement and fails to remedy same within twenty (20) calendar days after receipt of written notice of such breach from the non-breaching party, or if the same is not reasonably capable of being cured within twenty (20) calendar days, and the breaching party fails to commence to remedy same within twenty (20) calendar days and diligently prosecute the remedying of the breach until the same is remedied, the non-breaching party may, at its option, declare this Agreement terminated without prejudice to any additional remedy which may be available to the non-breaching party.

(c) University may elect not to renew this Agreement at the end of the Initial Term by providing written notice of non-renewal to PNC Bank at least ninety (90) calendar days prior to the expiration of the Initial Term, and, in such case, this Agreement shall be terminated as of the end of the Initial Term.

(d) Upon ninety (90) days prior written notice to the other party, either party may terminate this Agreement in the event that (i) any federal or state law is enacted, or any regulation is promulgated by a federal or state agency with supervisory or enforcement authority over University or PNC Bank, and (ii) such law or regulation makes it impossible, or impracticable for the terminating party to continue to perform its obligations under the Agreement. In any such notice of termination, the terminating party shall provide to the non-terminating party a description reasonably describing the basis for termination pursuant to subsections (i) and (ii) hereof. Upon the issuance of a notice of termination, the parties shall promptly meet and make reasonable efforts to amend this Agreement. If no mutually acceptable alternative arrangement can be found then this Agreement and all related agreements shall be terminated, (i.e., ATM Master License and E-Branch Lease).

(e) If, after complying with the procedures set forth in Section 3(c)(i) through (vii), inclusive, the parties are unable to reach an agreement as set forth therein, then this Agreement and all related agreements shall terminate as of the last day of the calendar month during which the sixty (60) day period described in Section 3(c)(v) expires.

(f) In addition, the University may terminate the Agreement in accordance with the termination provisions set forth in Exhibit G, Department of Education Cash Management Compliance Agreement.

(g) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, any desired termination of a branch or financial center lease or license shall require at least two hundred forty (240) days’ notice.

14. DEFAULT BY TENANT.

(a) The following shall be a “Tenant Default”:

(i) If Tenant shall fail to make the payments required hereunder when the same are due, and the same shall not be paid within ten (10) days after written notice to Tenant, or if Tenant breaches any other covenant of this Lease and fails to remedy same within thirty (30) days after written notice of such breach, or if the same is not reasonably capable of being cured within thirty (30) days, and Tenant fails to commence to remedy same within thirty (30) days and diligently prosecute the remedying of the breach, Landlord may terminate this Lease.

(ii) If Tenant shall become insolvent, bankrupt or make any assignment for the benefit of creditors, or if its interest hereunder shall be levied upon or sold under execution or other legal process, or in the event Tenant’s FSF is closed for more than sixty (60) consecutive days except in connection with a casualty, taking, alterations or as permitted under this Lease, without prejudice to any additional remedy which may be available to Landlord, Landlord may terminate this Lease without the need to provide any additional cure period to Tenant.

(iii) In order to comply with applicable law and regulation, including federal banking regulations governing the closure of branches, any terminations undertaken hereunder shall require two hundred forty (240) days’ prior written notice.
(b) If Landlord terminates this Lease and the license granted hereunder by reason of a Tenant Default, Landlord nevertheless will have the right to recover from Tenant damages that Landlord may incur by reason of such Tenant Default and if Landlord has recovered possession of the Premises, Landlord may alter, divide or combine some or all of the Premises with other space into the Building. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Lease, Landlord shall use commercially reasonable efforts to mitigate its damages flowing from any Tenant Default. In no event shall Landlord be entitled to punitive, special or consequential damages as a result of any Tenant Default.

(c) The parties agree that it is and will be impractical to ascertain Landlord’s damages in the event that this Lease is terminated on account of a Tenant Default and agree that in such event Landlord may elect to recover damages equal to:

(i) the cost of restoring the Premises to the condition existing on the Possession Date;

(ii) the costs, including reasonable attorneys’ fees and expenses, of removing Tenant and its property from the Premises and storing such property in accordance with applicable law;

(iii) an amount equal to the License Fees and other charges required to be paid by the Tenant under this License, less the fair value of the Premises (if same are used by Landlord) or, if same are not used by Landlord, less the net license fees, if any, collected by the Landlord on relicensing, subleasing or other transfer of the Premises in the event Landlord relicenses, sublets or transfers same, which amount shall be due and payable by the Tenant to the Landlord on the dates on which the License Fees and/or such other charges would have become due and payable had this Lease not been terminated. The fair value of the Premises (if used by Landlord), or the net license fees collected by Landlord on relicensing, subleasing or transferring (as the case may be), shall be computed by deducting the expenses, costs and charges referred to in subsections (c)(i) and (c)(ii) above from the gross fees collected.

The amounts set forth in this subparagraph (c) shall be due and payable by the Tenant to Landlord at such times as the expenses, costs and charges shall have been incurred.

15. DEFAULT BY LANDLORD.

(a) If Landlord breaches any covenant in this Lease and fails to remedy same within thirty (30) days after written notice of such breach, or if the same is not reasonably capable of being cured within thirty (30) days, and Landlord fails to commence to remedy same within thirty
(30) days and diligently prosecute the remedying of the breach, Tenant may, at its option, declare this Lease terminated without prejudice to any additional remedy which may be available to Tenant.

16. POSESSION UPON TERMINATION.

Within thirty (30) days after the expiration or any other termination of this Lease, Tenant shall surrender peaceful possession of the Premises and shall, at its expense, remove all improvements, furnishings and equipment, including but not limited to, all exterior and interior signage of Licensee (if any), placed on the Premises by or through Tenant and restore the Premises to as good a condition as it received same, loss or damage by fire or other insured casualty and ordinary wear and tear from reasonable use alone excepted. This paragraph shall survive the termination or expiration of this Lease.

All awards made by reason of condemnation shall be made to Landlord, and Tenant hereby irrevocably assigns to Landlord all its rights, title and interest in and to any such award. Landlord shall, however, pay Tenant any portion of an award which may be allocable to permanent improvements to the Building made by Tenant upon receipt of the award from the condemning authority. Also, if any award received by Landlord includes an amount of compensation for moving Tenant’s fixtures, Landlord shall pay that amount to Tenant.

19. ASSIGNMENT BY TENANT.

(b) Excepting Permitted Successors and Assigns, Tenant shall have no right to assign, sublease, mortgage, or otherwise transfer (each a "Transfer") its rights and obligations hereunder to any other person or entity without the express written consent of Landlord, which consent may not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed. Any persons or entities to which Landlord consents shall be deemed Permitted Successors and Assigns.

20. VACATION OF BUILDING.

(a) In the event Landlord decides to cease operating and vacate the Building, except as

If the use of the Building is to be relocated in another building, Tenant shall have the option, to be exercised within thirty (30) days after written notice from Landlord of the closure, of terminating this Lease or relocating its FSF in the new building under the same terms and conditions as provided under this Lease at the time of such relocation.

(b) In the event Landlord sells, leases, subleases, assigns or otherwise transfers its interest in the Building to a third party other than an entity of which Landlord is a majority owner, or in the event of a (A) merger by Landlord, (B) consolidation or (C) purchase of at least a majority of the stock, membership interest or other ownership interests in Landlord, by a third party (any of the third parties referred to previously in this sentence being hereinafter referred to as a “Transferee”), Tenant shall have the right to terminate this Lease by providing written notice to Landlord within thirty (30) days after it receives notice of the proposed transfer to a Transferee if Tenant in its sole discretion determines that the Building may no longer be operated in substantially the same manner and with the same operating standards then utilized by Landlord. Termination of this Lease pursuant to the terms of this Paragraph 20(b) shall be effective within one hundred fifty (150) days after notice of termination to Landlord or such longer period of time as may be required by any law applicable to closure of the FSF. Landlord shall not be responsible for safeguarding any of Tenant’s property or that of any of its employees.

(b) Tenant hereby releases Landlord from any claims, loss or damage that Tenant might sustain by virtue of a theft or attempted theft from the FSF except to the extent caused by the negligence, gross negligence or willful misconduct of Landlord or its affiliates or their respective agents, employees or contractors. Landlord hereby releases Tenant from any claims, loss or damage that Landlord might sustain by virtue of a theft or attempted theft from the Building (excluding the Premises) except to the extent caused by the negligence, gross negligence or willful misconduct of Tenant or its affiliates or their respective agents, employees or contractors.

[ADDRESS]

Dear XXXX:

On October 30, 2015, the Department of Education published final regulations amending its cash management rules (see, 34 CFR 668.161 – 668.167). In an effort to assist your institution in complying with the provisions under 34 CFR 668.164(e)(2)(vii), (e)(2)(vii), (e)(3), (f)(4)(iv), (f)(4)(v), and (f)(5), please refer to the information below.

The rules require, among other things that an institution publicly post information on its website related to:

1. The total consideration paid or received by the parties under the contract between the institution and the financial account provider;
2. For any year in which the institution’s enrolled students open 30 or more financial accounts under the agreement,
   a. The number of students who had financial accounts under the contract at any time during the most recently completed award year (July 1 – June 30), and
   b. The mean and median costs incurred by those student accountholders

This letter contains information you may choose to use in order to comply with these cash management regulation requirements.

On September 7, 2016, the DOE issued Dear Colleague letter GEN 16-16, entitled “Institutional Reporting of Fee Information under the New Cash Management Regulations” (the “Letter”). A copy of the Letter can be found here https://fsapartners.ed.gov/knowledge-center/library/dear-colleague-letters/2016-09-07/institutional-reporting-fee-information-under-new-cash-management-regulations. In the Letter, the DOE presents “guidance to institutions and financial account providers about complying with new provisions requiring institutions to publicly disclose information about the costs incurred by students who elect to use a financial account offered under a Tier One or Tier Two arrangement.” The DOE provides the following three (3) specific methods institutions may choose to use for calculating the requested cost disclosure information shown above in #2:

1. Matching Directory Information
2. Accounts linked to Student IDs
3. Revenue Sharing
In addition, the DOE acknowledges that “many existing agreements already provide a convenient means by which the data required can be gathered.” This would be the case for PNC Bank. Hence, using our available account coding would be a fourth (4th) method allowed by the DOE. In any event, the DOE expects institutions “to use the method that is most accurate in light of the information they have,” and be able to evidence “that the cost information was calculated in a reasonable and reliable manner.”

The fourth method, described in the Letter, though not specifically enumerated, expressly permits institutions to use a method already available from their bank. We believe that the account coding process long employed by PNC Bank qualifies as an acceptable method.

In the Letter, the DOE further permits institutions which must deal with the inability to eliminate non-students from the data “to include in the cost disclosures any student who held an account within the last two years. For example, the students identified by the institution as having an account under any of these approaches would be in a two-year cohort and the institution would disclose the number of students in that cohort and mean and median costs incurred by those students.” This two-year cohort calculation can be used to address any method the institution may choose to use wherein the elimination of non-students from the calculation is not administratively possible.

Therefore, in accordance with the Letter and other applicable law, PNC provides fee information and the number of student accountholders under the 4th method from a two-year cohort of customers whose student accounts were opened between July 1, 2016 and June 30, 2018. This information is provided for the sole purpose of reporting under the cash management regulation, and may not be revised, nor disseminated or employed for any other purpose.

In order to assist you in complying with the cash management regulations, PNC Bank reports as follows:
