

FILM

BGSU COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

The Bachelor of Arts in Film at Bowling Green State University offers two areas of specialization: film production and film studies. Film majors gain experience in film history, aesthetics, production and methods of analysis that illuminate global and cultural perspectives. Students in film production gain experience in all aspects of production and are prepared to begin careers as writers, producers and directors. Students in film studies are prepared to begin careers in journalism, festival organization, film acquisition and distribution, and, with additional professional training, entertainment law.

College of Arts and Sciences — Film

Points of Pride

- BGSU's film program was established over 25 years ago and today is one of the most comprehensive undergraduate film programs in the country.
- The program has state-of-the-art equipment, extensive production opportunities and nationally recognized faculty.
- Student organizations such as University Film Organization (UFO)/BG Reel provide networking opportunities and great resources for those interested in participating in film culture.
- BGSU film and theatre students can study abroad; BGSU and University of Wales offer a student exchange program in film and/or theatre.

A Public University for the Public Good

The Department of Theatre and Film enriches knowledge, fosters collaboration, and bolsters shared social, cultural and economic benefits through creative process and critical analysis. The department's emphases on collaboration, creativity, problem-solving, critical inquiry, cognitive flexibility, and empathy promote skills and habits of mind necessary for the changing demands of the 21st Century world.

Students may want to consider a minor or second major in the following areas:

Film Production

- Media production and studies
- Digital arts
- Creative writing
- Marketing
- Recording Technology

Film Studies

- Popular Culture
- Journalism
- Theatre
- American Culture Studies
- International Studies

What can I do with this major?

Film production and studies graduates may find employment in the following areas:

- Producer
- Director
- Editor
- Film journalist
- Cinematographer
- Script supervisor
- Boom operator
- Film archivist/researcher
- Screenwriter

For more information

Film

419-372-2222

bgsu.edu/theatrefilm