

FACULTY RESEARCH AND EXPERTISE

FACULTY MEMBER

Kyle Moninger

Department of Applied Statistics and Operations Research
kmoning@bgsu.edu
419-372-8961

BIO: Kyle Moninger is an Instructor of the Quantitative Curriculum. Over the past four years, Kyle has served on the Quantitative Curriculum Committee to redesign the five quantitative courses in the BSBA program, piloted Active Learning/Flipped Classroom pedagogy in several of his courses, consults for McGraw Hill Publishing, and co-authored a new edition of a business statistics textbook. He also serves on the College of Business Faculty Council where he chairs the Elections Subcommittee. Prior to his employment at BGSU, Kyle worked as a Data Scientist at Owens Corning where he worked on consulting projects and conducted Business Intelligence workshops.

AREAS OF EXPERTISE

- Applied Statistics
- Operations Research
- Business analytics

RESEARCH INTERESTS

CONSULTING PROJECTS

- Test bank creation and review
- Oregon State University Connect Workshop
- SWOT Content Analysis for Business Statistics Franchise