

BOWLING GREEN STATE UNIVERSITY
COLLEGE OF BUSINESS

FACULTY RESEARCH AND EXPERTISE

FACULTY MEMBER

Ryan Holley

Instructor of Business Communication & Applied Business Experience
Department of Marketing
rholley@bgsu.edu
419-372-4082

BIO: Ryan Holley is a 3rd generation 'townie', and the 3rd generation in a 50 year old family business – non-student, multifamily housing. He is extremely involved in local community serving on the City of Bowling Green's Planning Commission and Housing Agency. He serves local business and industry directly through the Governmental Affairs Project Team of the Bowling Green Chamber of Commerce and the Reinvestment Council of the Bowling Green Economic Development Foundation. In his industry, Holley currently serves as President of the Wood County Apartment Association, sits on the Board of the Ohio Apartment Association, and holds a Certified Apartment Manager designation from the National Apartment Association Education Institute.

AREAS OF EXPERTISE

- Business Communication
- Applied Business
- Small Business
- Family Business
- Personal Branding & Development
- Multifamily Housing
- Community Engagement & Development

RESEARCH INTERESTS

CONSULTING PROJECTS