National Service Marketing Competition
February 26-28, 2015

Team Application Form, Page 1

University Name: __________________________________________________________
Address to be used to receive competition materials: _____________________________________________
Faculty Coach Name: _______________________________________________________
Badge Name: _____________________________________________________________
Coach’s Email: ____________________________________________________________
Coach’s Cell Phone: _______________________________________________________

Student Competitor’s Names & Contact Information:
1. Student Name: __________________________________________________________
   Badge Name: ___________________________________________________________
   Email Address: __________________________________________________________

2. Student Name: __________________________________________________________
   Badge Name: ___________________________________________________________
   Email Address: __________________________________________________________

3. Student Name: __________________________________________________________
   Badge Name: ___________________________________________________________
   Email Address: __________________________________________________________

4. Student Name: __________________________________________________________
   Badge Name: ___________________________________________________________
   Email Address: __________________________________________________________

Entry Fee is $150 per student competitor, or $500 for a team of 4 students
Please make check payable to BGSU Service Marketing Institute and mail with a copy of this form to:

Christine Seiler
Associate Director, Service Marketing Institute
Bowling Green State University
248 Business Administration Bldg
Bowling Green, OH 43403
FAX: 419-372-8062

Team application form accompanied by payment must be received on or before November 21, 2014. Confirmation of receipt will follow.
Guidelines & Specifications

- Refunds are not available; however universities may substitute a student competitor in place of a registered student who cannot attend. Replacement students’ names must be provided to BGSU’s Service Marketing Institute as early as possible.
- I understand that videotapes of my team’s competitive events may be made available to corporate sponsors for review and evaluation purposes and may be used for future BGSU Service Marketing Institute marketing and promotional purposes.
- Important: Student competitors from your team must email a one-page resume to cseiler@bgsu.edu by January 23, 2015. Resume’s sent after that date will not be included in the resume’ booklet provided to corporate sponsors and employment recruiters.
- I understand that BGSU’s SMI may provide my and my students’ contact information to sponsors of this event and I give my permission for them to do so.
- I confirm that all my student competitors are currently undergraduate students working towards a Bachelor’s degree during the current academic school year.

Faculty Coach Signature: ____________________________________________
Date: ____________________________________________________________

Student #1 Signature: ______________________________________________
Date: ____________________________________________________________

Student #2 Signature: ______________________________________________
Date: ____________________________________________________________

Student #3 Signature: ______________________________________________
Date: ____________________________________________________________

Student #4 Signature: ______________________________________________
Date: ____________________________________________________________