

Bachelor of Science in Education with a major in World Language Education with a Specialization in Chinese, French, German, Italian, Japanese, Latin, Russian, or Spanish. Majors are eligible for a multi-age (3-21) teaching license, providing that they have a 2.8 cumulative grade point average and a 2.8 grade point average in the specialization and have met the passing scores on required tests including the Praxis II content and pedagogy tests and the ACTFL OPI and WPT. This degree program is designed to be completed in 4 years and one summer for those who study abroad for one academic year. Changing majors, timing of study abroad, or other unforeseen circumstances typically requires additional semesters for completion. Proficiency in the target language upon declaring the major may also impact time to degree completion.
