

POSTER SESSION PARTICIPANTS

Click a highlighted link to view a Counting Couples, Counting Families 2011 research conference poster.

1. Burgoyne, Sarah. Couple Relationship Quality by Union Type. National Center for Family & Marriage Research.
2. Copen, Casey. Marriage and Cohabitation in the United States: Using Data from the National Survey of Family Growth. National Center for Health Statistics.
3. Dorius, Cassandra. Multipartnered Fertility at Midlife. University of Michigan.
4. Farr, Rachel H. Observations of Coparenting among Adoptive Lesbian, Gay, and Heterosexual Couples. University of Massachusetts Amherst.
5. Fomby, Paula and Goode, Joshua. Family Change Trajectories and Children's School Readiness in the United Kingdom. University of Colorado Denver.
6. Gates, J. Gary and Steinberger, Michael D. Same-sex Unmarried Partner Couples in the American Community Survey: The role of misreporting, miscoding, and misallocation. University of California, Los Angeles.
7. Gibbs, Larry. Divorce: The Nine Year Itch. National Center for Family & Marriage Research.
8. Hegg, Krystal. "The Cycle of Deployment: Stress, Challenges, and Resource Use by Military Spouses." Hood College, School of Social Work, BSW program under the tutelage of Dr. Joy Swanson Ernst.
9. Hernandez, Daphne. The Role of Family Structure Transitions on Young Adults' BMI: The Importance of Counting Cohabitation. Pennsylvania State University.
10. Joyner, Kara, Kao, Grace, and Balistreri, Kelly. Current Sexual and Romantic Involvement among Young Adults by Race/Ethnicity and Gender. Bowling Green State University.
11. Kennedy, Sheela. "Family Structure and Child Economic Well-Being during the Great Recession." University of Minnesota.
12. Payne, Krista. Young Adult Residential Transitions by Highest Degree Earned. National Center for Family & Marriage Research.
13. Stykes, Bart. Age at First Birth According to Education, by Gender. National Center for Family & Marriage Research.
14. Zill, Nicholas. How Many Teens Grow Up In Stable Married Families? Finding an Answer in the American Community Survey. Consulting Psychologist.

Counting Couples,
Counting Families