The Department of Biological Sciences at Bowling Green State University seeks strong applicants for part-time teaching positions to fill a range of course teaching needs from introductory biology classes to focused, advanced courses (e.g., A&P, Evolution), as well as online courses. Applicants with a minimum of a MS (sciences) are eligible for the introductory courses, while, for advanced courses, preference will be given to excellent teachers with a PhD or ABD. Starting date is August 2014. Unless they request otherwise, qualified applicants will also be considered for future part-time employment opportunities that may arise.

Applicants should submit: 1) letter of application, 2) full curriculum vita, 3) name, address and phone number of three references. Finalists will be required to submit: two current original letters of reference and official transcripts indicating highest degree. Finalists are also required to authorize and pass a background check prior to offer of employment. Electronically submit application materials to dmclean@bgsu.edu (Subject heading: Biology PT Faculty Search) by April 30, 2014. Questions? Contact Dr. Jeffrey Miner (Dept. Chair.) at jminer@bgsu.edu. Further information about our department can be found at http://www.bgsu.edu/arts-and-sciences/biological-sciences.html.

Bowling Green State University is an Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer and encourages applications from women, minorities, veterans and individuals with disabilities.