

5th Annual
BGSU/OSU Graduate Student Conference on Population

Friday October 28, 2011
The Ohio State University
IPR Seminar Room, Townshend Room 038

Sponsored by the Center for Family and Demographic Research (BGSU) and the Initiative for Population Research (OSU)

10:00am-10:30am Check in and Welcome

10:30am-12:15pm Session 1: Population Health & Well-Being

Chair: Rhiannon Kroeger

Food Spending and Household Health

Dmitry Tumin, Rachel Tumin, and Michael Nau

Exposure to Segregation and Health Outcomes in Childhood

Bethany Boettner

Anxiety in Children and Adolescents: Differences in Neighborhood Context and Structure

Maggie Rechel

Negative Romantic Relationship Qualities in Emerging Adulthood and their Impact on Depression

Sue Nash

The Association between Mental Health and Relationship Progression

Sara E. Sandberg-Thomas

Discussant: DeShauna Jones

12:15pm-1:15pm Lunch is provided

1:15 -3:00pm Session 2: Family Demography

Chair: Holly Fee

Exploring Townsend's 'Package Deal' among Disadvantaged Fathers: Integrating Mainstream Sociological and Critical Gender theories of Masculinity on Fatherhood

Bart Stykes

The Psychological and Physical Well-Being of Involved, Low-Income Fathers

Letitia Kotila

Racial/Ethnic Variation in Parenting Styles: The Experience of Multiracial Adolescents

Amanda House

Understanding Sibling relationships in Blended Families

Michael Yee-Shui

Migration, Residential Mobility and Union Formation
Bohyun Joy Jang

Discussant: Ryan Bogle

3:15pm-5:00pm

Session 3: Neighborhoods, Crime, and Deviance

Chair: Larry Gibbs

Scripts, Sects, and Sex: A Network Approach of Reference Groups
Brian Soller

Brokering Delinquent Networks: Spanning the Micro-Macro Divide in Delinquency Research

Christopher B. Keenan

Outside of my Control: Non-traditional Family Structures and Parental Incarceration on the Development of Mastery

Unique Shaw

Why do they leave? Stay/Leave Decision-Making Processes in Violent Dating Relationships

Jen Copp

Further Examination of the Association between Unintended Pregnancy and Intimate Partner Violence in Latin America

Jen Mendoza

Discussant: Greg Rocheleau