

CFDR Update: April 18, 2008

Population Reference Bureau Summer Internship Program 2008

The PRB seeks four interns for the summer of 2008 in the following departments: Domestic Programs (1), International Programs (1), and Communications and Marketing (2). Depending on level of skill, the interns will assist senior PRB staff members with a variety of tasks ranging from data collection and analysis to communicating policy relevant information on child and family issues, reproductive health, gender, poverty, aging, and migration. Application deadline is April 25.

<http://www.prb.org/Home/About/JobOpportunities.aspx>

Snap Survey Workshops

The BGSU Office of Institutional Research has scheduled two workshops to show you how to use Snap Survey Software. Snap is available to you at no charge, but ITS must install the software and file sharing capability on your PC. Bill Knight, Director of the BGSU Office of Institutional Research, is facilitating the Snap workshops. To register, please call 372-6898 or email ctlit@bgsu.edu.

Part One: Mon., May 5, 8:30-11:30 a.m., 222 Education Building

Part Two: Tue., May 6, 8:30-10:00 a.m., 222 Education Building

2008 WLS Pilot Grant Program – Applications due May 27

The Center for Demography of Health and Aging at the University of Wisconsin-Madison will award two to three pilot grants to investigators using the WLS data for scholarly research. Selected recipients will receive $10,000 to support their research, along with a residency at CDHA, where they will receive training and support in use of WLS data. More info: <http://ssc.wisc.edu/wlsresearch/pilot/>

Workshop Ideas for Fall Semester

Add Health confusion?...Conference preparation anxiety?...SAS/SPSS/Stata befuddlement? We have begun scheduling workshops for Fall semester and invite your suggestions. Please call our office or reply to this email if you have a topic to recommend. Summer workshops are being finalized now. We'll keep you posted on dates and times.

If you missed a workshop this semester or misplaced workshop handouts, you can find workshop materials on the CFDR web site.*