Calls for Proposals: Qualitative Interview Project Targeted at Unmarried Young Adults - Letter of intent due June 5

The National Campaign to Prevent Teen and Unplanned Pregnancy is seeking proposals for a qualitative interview project targeted at unmarried young adults (age 18 to 29), with a suggested focus on community college students. The qualitative interviews will explore pregnancy intentions, contraceptive decisions and behavior and reasons governing those decisions and behavior, with a primary emphasis on the reasons why young adults not seeking pregnancy either don't use contraception or don't use it effectively. For more information click here. Full proposals must be submitted by June 23.
