

CFDR Update: February 6, 2009

Speaker Series– Wednesday, February 11th

Dr. Sarah Burgard, Department of Sociology, University of Michigan [Bio]

Relationship Characteristics and Condom Use among Young People in South Africa

Wednesday, February 11, Noon - 1:00 pm

Bowen-Thompson Student Union, Room 315

New NIH Policy on the time available to correct errors in applications

NIH has extended the electronic application error correction window to 5 days for all opportunities with receipt dates in February 2009. Please see notice NOT-OD-09-045 for the guidelines and procedural details of this extension.

Population Reference Bureau's Fellows Program in Population Policy – Applications due February 20th

The program information and application details can also be found on the PRB website: www.prb.org. This program is an excellent opportunity for PhD students in demography, family planning, reproductive health, and related fields to learn more about translating their research into policy.

C2S Seed Grant Program – Applications due February 27th

The Cells to Society (C2S) Biomarker Seed Grant Program promotes the use of biomarker and other innovative methods in community- and population-based research projects. Investigators may request up to $5,000 to support their pilot research. More about the program and application details are here.

Ohio Program Evaluators Group - Call for Proposals due March 13th

The Ohio Program Evaluators Group (www.opeg.org) is accepting proposals for the 2009 Spring Exchange, held at the Fawcett Center in Columbus on May 15, 2009. This year's theme is "Cultural Competency & Evaluation: Definitions & Practice." Proposals are being solicited in two categories: 1) Cultural competency in evaluation, and 2) Evaluation practice.

ICPSR's Longitudinal Analysis of Historical Demographic Data Workshop – Applications due May 4th

Instructors: George Alter, History, U of M; Myron Gutmann, History, U of M

This 4-week course will emphasize the use of event history analysis and data management of historical databases drawn from European, North American, and Asian populations. Enrollment is limited. More information is at this link: <http://www.icpsr.umich.edu/sumprog/historical-demography.html>.

Working Papers to Post or Update?

Please let us know if your working papers have been published or if publication is forthcoming and we will update the CFDR website with the journal information.
