

CFDR Update: March 6, 2009

SAS Regression Workshop – Monday, March 16th

Monday, March 16, Noon-1:00 pm

Bowen-Thompson Student Union, Room 316

Free Workshops at the PAA Annual Meeting

- NSFG, Cycle 7 Data File: A Preview – Wednesday, April 29, 3:30-5:30 pm
An introduction to the first data file from the new Continuous National Survey of Family Growth. No advance signup is required. For further information please contact Bill Mosher at nsfg@cdc.gov.
- Wisconsin Longitudinal Study Training Workshop – Wednesday, April 29, 3:00-5:00pm
History and content of the 51 year-old project, addition of DNA data to the analysis variables and future plans. More about WLS. Contact Carol Roan by email (roan@wisc.edu) or telephone (608 265-6196) for more information.
- Fragile Families Dataset Workshop – Wednesday, April 29, 6:00-8:00pm
Workshop title: “Using the Fragile Families and Child Wellbeing Study Data to Study Marriage and Family.”
Email cprc@columbia.edu if planning to attend. Space is limited.
- Data Users Training Seminar on the NLSY79 – Wednesday, April 29, 2:00-5:00pm
An introduction to the NLSY. Space is limited and registration is required. To register, send an e-mail to usersvc@chrr.osu.edu and include your name, address, contact telephone number, and area(s) of particular interest.

NCES International Databases Seminar - May 20-22, 2009, Washington, DC

The National Center for Education Statistics will sponsor a 3-day seminar on the use of NCES International Databases to include: the Program for International Student Assessment (PISA), the Trends in International Mathematics and Science Study (TIMSS), and the Progress in International Reading Literacy Study (PIRLS). This seminar is open to advanced graduate students and faculty members from colleges and universities nationwide, and to researchers, education. More information and application form,

Modeling Diary and Dyadic Data Workshop, University of Massachusetts

June 8-11, 2009

The Center for Research on Families at the University of Massachusetts Amherst announces a workshop that will be of interest to members of the social and behavioral sciences, including social, clinical, and developmental psychologists, family and medical sociologists, gerontologists, social workers, communication researchers, and researchers in marketing and organizational behavior. Visit <http://www.umass.edu/family/method09.htm> to download a mail-in registration form. Contact Holly Laws at hlaws@psych.umass.edu with questions.

Princeton Graduate Seminar on “The Marital Divide: Race, Ethnicity, Class and the Retreat from Marriage”

June 10 - 13, 2009, Princeton, New Jersey

Sponsored by the Witherspoon Institute, the seminar will focus on the causes and consequences of, and the remedies for, the retreat from marriage in the U.S., with a particular focus on minorities and the poor. Seminar details and application requirements are at this link: http://www.winst.org/seminars/social_sciences.php

Forthcoming Publications?

Please let us know if your working papers have been published or if publication is forthcoming and we will update the CFDR web site with the journal information.
