Congratulations to Peggy, Wendy, and Monica!

Peggy Giordano, Wendy Manning and Monica Longmore received additional funding from the National Institute of Justice. Building on the Toledo Adolescent Relationships Study, the aims of the project include: analyzing the incidence, prevalence, and patterns of relationship abuse from adolescence to young adulthood; examining similarities and differences in violent and non-violent relationships; and identifying situational contexts within relationships that amplify risk for violence.

Call for Proposals - Welfare Research and Evaluation Conference

The Office of Planning, Research and Evaluation (OPRE) invites proposals for individual presentations and for entire conference sessions. The deadline is Friday, October 29, 2010. More details and submission instructions are at this link: <http://www.wrconference.net/index.aspx>. The conference will be held June 1–3, 2011 in Washington, DC.

Call for Proposals - “New Frontiers in the Psychology of Character”

Wake Forest University, with the help of a generous grant from The John Templeton Foundation, is accepting proposals for the “New Frontiers in the Psychology of Character” funding initiative. Letters of Intent are due by November 29, 2010. For details, please see the document available at http://www.thecharacterproject.com/documents/Psychology_RFP.pdf.

How to Submit an Electronic Grant Application on Grants.gov

The CFDR web site has helpful instructions on how to submit electronic grant proposals. There is a flowchart describing each step in the process, a chart with NIH due dates, a bio-sketch sample, and more. Take a look: <http://www.bgsu.edu/organizations/cfdr/page34550.html>.
