

CFDR Update: October 15, 2010

BGSU/OSU Graduate Student Conference on Population

Friday, October 22, 2010

315 Bowen-Thompson Student Union

10:00 am to 4:00 pm. Conference Agenda

Conference on Emerging Adulthood – Call for Proposals available December 15, 2010

The 5th Conference on Emerging Adulthood will bring together a diverse international group of scholars to present symposia, papers, and posters on development from the late teens through the twenties, with a focus on ages 18-25. The conference will take place October 27-28, 2011 in Providence, RI. Registration opens online March 1, 2011. Proposal submissions are due March 31, 2011. <http://www.ssea.org/>

Good Luck to I-Fen Lin and Susan Brown!

I-Fen Lin and Susan Brown submitted an R21 application to NIH entitled, “Antecedents and Consequences of Middle and Later Life Divorce.”

BGSU's Africana Studies Student Research Conference – Call for Papers due February 15

This year's theme is “The Place of Africana Studies in Global Perspective.” The Africana Studies Program welcomes papers dealing with the broader issues affecting Africana people in the global context including but not limited to: language, religion, gender and culture; ethnicity, politics, leadership, economics and commerce; law; medicine & public health practices; education; war and terrorism; peace and conflict resolution; youth, crime, and vigilante justice; changing values and norms; role of the arts/media; education and development, immigration/migration, slavery and European influences; property rights, peace & security; rural-urban changes; the civil war; political-economic empowerment and leadership; and national reconciliation; census; etc. Graduate and undergraduate students from all disciplines are encouraged to participate.

SAS, SPSS, STATA Programming Questions?

CFDR Data Analyst, Hsueh-Sheng Wu, is here to help. Stop by his CFDR office (5D Williams) any Tuesday or Thursday between 2:00 and 4:00 pm.