Society for Research in Child Development Fellowships – Applications due December 15, 2011
SRCD is seeking applications for Policy Fellowships for the 2012-2013 term. There are currently two types of Fellowships: Congressional and Executive Branch. Both fellowships provide exciting opportunities for researchers to come to Washington, DC and use developmental science outside of the academic setting to inform public policy. These fellowships are open to doctoral scientists from any discipline relevant to child development, and both early and mid-career professionals are encouraged to apply. More about the fellowships is at this link: http://www.srcd.org/index.php?option=com_content&task=view&id=181&Itemid=300

Save the Date! The CFDR Spring Symposium will be March 26, 2012

- Dr. Kristi Williams, Department of Sociology, the Ohio State University
- Dr. Kevin Roy, School of Public Health, the University of Maryland
- Dr. Maureen Perry-Jenkins, Department of Psychology, University of Massachusetts, Amherst.

Statistical Analysis and Programming Help on the CFDR Website
The CFDR website is an excellent source of statistical analysis and programming help: guides for SAS, SPSS and Stata; annotated output; advanced programming help; and guides for the use of ACS data. All this and more can be found under the Help Resources and Tools link:
