New Working Group on Latent Class Analysis

The CFDR is establishing a new working group that provides faculty, staff, and graduate students the opportunity to share preliminary analyses using latent class analysis (and latent transition analysis) and obtain feedback from others. This working group builds on the momentum of July’s two-day workshop covering LCA. If you are interested in joining the working group, please contact Kara Joyner (kjoyner@bgsu.edu) before September 4th.

Robert Wood Johnson Foundation Health & Society Scholars

Harvard is one of four sites nationally to host this 2 year interdisciplinary program. For program information and to apply, visit <http://www.healthandsocietyscholars.org/>. For information specific to the Harvard site, visit <http://www.hsph.harvard.edu/centers-institutes/population-development/training/rwjf-health-society-scholars-program/index.html>. Deadline to apply is Friday, September 21, 2012.

Russell Sage Foundation Visiting Scholar Program

The Russell Sage Foundation has established a center where Visiting Scholars can pursue their writing and research. Each year, the Russell Sage Foundation invites a number of scholars to its New York headquarters to investigate topics in social and behavioral sciences. The Foundation particularly welcomes groups of scholars who wish to collaborate on a specific project during their residence. The deadline for applications is September 30th of the year prior to the desired year of residence. <http://www.russellsage.org/visiting-scholars>.

Programming Help Hours

SAS, SPSS, or Stata programming questions? CFDR Data Analyst, Hsueh-Sheng Wu, is available to help every Tuesday and Thursday afternoon between 2:00 and 4:00. Stop by his office in 5D Williams Hall.
