

CFDR Update: January 11, 2013

Speaker Series – Wednesday, January 16

“Uncovering Ethnic Disparities in Weight-Related Behavior using Spatial Analysis”

Dr. Olugbenga Ajilore

Department of Economics, University of Toledo

Wednesday, January 16, Noon-1:00 pm

Bowen-Thompson Student Union, Room 314

Call for Nominations: IPUMS Research Award

This is the fifth annual award competition for research using the IPUMS microdata collection. Papers or publications submitted should utilize IPUMS-USA/CPS, IPUMS-International, or IHIS to study social, economic, and/or demographic processes. Cash prizes will be awarded for best published work, and best work by a graduate student, published or unpublished. The deadline for nominations or submissions is February 15, 2013. To submit, go to: <http://award.pop.umn.edu/2012>

Call for Papers: National Council on Family Relations – Submissions Due March 1

Theme: Well-being of Children and Youth in Families and Communities. Proposals can be submitted online at the NCFR website at <http://www.ncfr.org/ncfr-2013>. The conference will take place November 6–9, 2013 in San Antonio, Texas.

Student Presenters at PAA

If you're presenting a paper or poster at the PAA meeting in April, mark your calendars for the PAA Practice Talks on Monday, March 18th from 12:00 to 2:00 pm in 314 BTSU. The CFDR also offers help with designing and printing posters. Final poster content must be submitted to us by Friday, March 22. Please contact the CFDR office for more details.