

CFDR Update: April 26, 2013

Joint Meeting of the Add Health and the Crime & Violence in Context Working Groups – Today

Cassidy Pitt, “Poverty and Delinquency: God, Guitars, and Games as Coping and Capital.”
Friday, April 26 in the CFDR/NCFMR Conference Room

Summer Institute in Mental Health Research – June 10-20, 2013

Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health

The Institute focuses on methodological and substantive topics in mental health and substance-use research.

Course list and registration information.

CFDR’s Summer Seminar: Introduction to Propensity Score Analysis - June 26th

Instructor: Dr. Matthew VanEseltine

Wednesday, June 26, 1:00 to 3:00 pm.

If you plan to attend, please RSVP to the CFDR office, as space is limited: cfdr@bgsu.edu or 419-372-7279.

National Symposium on Family Issues

“Diverging Destinies: Families in an Era of Increasing Inequality” is the topic of Penn State’s 21st Annual Symposium on Family Issues, to be held October 7-8, 2013, on the University Park campus. Sixteen scholars from major institutions will integrate perspectives and address policy implications. Information and registration is available at this link.

Speakers for Fall Semester

We have begun scheduling seminars for fall semester and welcome your suggestions for guest speakers. Please call our office or reply to this email.