Wray Jackson Smith Scholarship – Applications due April 1, 2017

The ASA Government Statistics Section invites applications for the WJSS. This scholarship is intended to encourage young statisticians to consider a career in government service. The WJSS Award provides funding of $1,000 to be used in ways that will advance the recipient's exposure to or experience with the application of statistics to problems relevant to any level of government. Applicants must have a Bachelor's degree or equivalent level of education: <http://community.amstat.org/governmentstatisticssection/awards/competitions>.

Call for Papers: British Society for Population Studies

The 2017 BSPS Conference will take place September 6-8, 2017 at the University of Liverpool. Proposals or abstracts for papers and posters are invited across the entire demographic and population studies spectrum and should be submitted by April 24. Complete information can be found here:
