New CFDR Resource for Population Researchers Interested in NIH Funding

Thinking of applying for NIH/NICHHD funding for projects that fall under the categories of demography, reproductive health, or population health? Check out the grants currently being funded by the Population Dynamics Branch (PDB) to see the kinds of research supported and the mechanisms of support (R01, R03, and R21). These resources can be found on the Grants Opportunities page of the CFDR website.

The William T. Grant Foundation’s Mentoring Guide for Scholars

Developed by the Foundation and the Forum for Youth Investment, and originally released in 2010, Pay it Forward: Guidance for Mentoring Junior Scholars, has been updated with new links to resources on four broad themes: 1) building and maintaining mentoring relationships, 2) mentoring across difference, 3) supporting career development, and 4) managing conflict within mentoring relationships.

Call for Papers: Eastern Sociological Annual Meeting – Abstracts due by October 12

The paper session titled “Gender and Work” invites theoretical and/or empirical research that explores gender gaps in work outcomes and/or gender inequality in the workplace. We are mainly interested in papers exploring the centrality of work to the reproduction of gendered inequalities. Please send your abstracts (not more than 250 words) to session organizer Deniz Yucel, yuceld@wpunj.edu.
