Call for Applications: National Poverty Fellows Program

The National Poverty Fellows Program offers talented postdoctoral researchers an opportunity to participate in a federal government-university partnership. The goal of the program is both to build the capacity of researchers to conduct high-quality policy-relevant research on poverty and inequality in the U.S. and to contribute to the effective use of research and scientific knowledge in the formation of public policy. For a general overview, see www.irp.wisc.edu/postdoc.htm. Application information and submission guidelines can be found at <http://www.irp.wisc.edu/postdoc/application-information.htm>. They are now accepting applications with positions beginning summer or fall of 2018.

Postdoctoral Fellowship: Harvard Center for Population and Development Studies

The David E. Bell Postdoctoral Fellowship Program provides opportunities for research and leadership training in a flexible 1 or 2 year non-degree program for postdoctoral researchers in the field of population and development. <https://www.hsph.harvard.edu/population-development/postdoctoral-fellowships/bell-fellowship/>. Applications are due December 8, 2017.
