Fragile Families Summer Data Workshop – Applications due March 1st

The Columbia Population Research Center is accepting applications for the Fragile Families Summer Data Workshop to be held July 11-13, 2018, at Columbia University in New York City. The workshop is designed to familiarize participants with the data available in the Fragile Families and Child Wellbeing Study, a national study following a birth cohort of (mostly) unmarried parents and their children, providing information about the capabilities, circumstances, and relationships of unwed parents, the wellbeing of their children, and the role of public policy in family and child wellbeing. The workshop is targeted toward early-career scholars from social science disciplines. The online application is available at <http://www.ffworkshop.columbia.edu>.

Scholarships for ICPSR Summer Program – Applications due March 31st

The ICPSR Summer Program offers several scholarships to support researchers interested in acquiring quantitative skills. The scholarships provide a registration fee waiver to their 2018 four-week sessions. Located on the University of Michigan campus, the four-week sessions are an immersive learning experience in quantitative research methods. Applicants must fill out the application form and upload the required materials through the ICPSR Summer Program's scholarship application manager. For a complete list of scholarships, visit the ICPSR Summer Program Scholarships page.
