

CFDR Update: April 13, 2018

Speaker Series – Wednesday, April 18Beyond the Nuclear Family: Children and Household ExtensionDr. Natasha Pilkauskas

Gerald R. Ford School of Public Policy, University of Michigan

Wednesday, April 18, 12:30-1:30 pm

Bowen-Thompson Student Union, Room 207

Congratulations to Susan Brown!

Dr. Susan Brown has been awarded the prestigious title of Distinguished Research Professor by the BGSU Board of Trustees. The title is conferred upon faculty members who hold the rank of professor and who have established outstanding national and international recognition through research and publication in their disciplines. Dr. Brown is being recognized as one of the top and most visible family sociologists and demographers in the country.

CFDR Faculty Training Award – Applications due April 20th

The purpose of the CFDR Training Award is to help BGSU researchers obtain additional training in analytic skills, new data collection methods, use of a specific data set, or application of software. We are seeking applications by April 20. More information is at this link.

ICPSR Summer 2018 Program – Registration discount

ICPSR offers a discount on registration fees if you register and pay in full by April 30. Visit their registration page for a full list of fees and discounts. Check out the 2018 Schedule and the course descriptions for further information about this year's program content, including instructors, dates, and daily schedules.

Affiliates and Students: Acknowledgment Statement Required for Manuscripts and Presentations

Affiliates and students at NICHD-funded population centers are required to acknowledge population infrastructure support in all of their papers and presentations. Such acknowledgment is critical to convey the impact of federal funding on advances in research. If you have not already done so, please add this statement provided at this link to your manuscripts and presentations.