

CFDR Update: April 12, 2019

CFDR Symposium – Thursday, April 25

The CFDR's symposium on Intergenerational Transmission of Health will take place Thursday, April 25. The guest speakers will be:

- Kathleen Mullan Harris, PhD, James Haar Distinguished Professor, Sociology, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill
 - Jessica Halliday Hardie, PhD, Associate Professor of Sociology, Hunter College, CUNY
 - Andrea Willson, PhD, Associate Professor of Sociology, University of Western Ontario
- Seating is limited and pre-registration is required. Please reply to this email to pre-register.*

Research Scholars Program at the National Research Center on Hispanic Children & Families – Applications due May 20th

The National Research Center on Hispanic Children & Families is seeking applications for their Research Scholars Program. They will award up to two research scholars a stipend of $7,500 for a 12-month period to focus on questions that can inform poverty reduction and self-sufficiency, healthy marriage and responsible fatherhood, and/or early care and education programs, policies, and services. The program is open to currently enrolled Ph.D. students (third year or higher), postdoctoral researchers, or early career scholars (up to five years post-Ph.D.).

ICPSR Methodology Workshops at University of Massachusetts, Amherst

- Advanced Multilevel Modeling with HLM: May 28-31, 2019
- Multilevel Modeling with HLM and SPSS: June 3-7, 2019
- Stress Biomarkers--Why, What, Where and How: June 17-18, 2019
- Analyzing Intensive Longitudinal Data: A Guide to Diary, Experience Sampling, and Ecological Momentary Assessment Methods: June 24-28

Affiliates: New Working Papers? Recent Publications or Presentations?

To help us maintain an up-to-date website and to facilitate information collection for our required progress reports, please send us any new working papers and let us know about recent publications and/or presentations.