Good Luck to Kara Joyner!

Dr. Kara Joyner submitted a grant application to the National Institutes of Health titled “Contextual Determinants of Sexual Minority Health in the United States.”

Call for Pilot Grants: Aging Studies Institute at Syracuse UniversityThe Network on Life Course Health Dynamics and Disparities in 21st Century America (NLCHDD), funded by the National Institute on Aging, invites interested researchers to submit pilot proposals that have the potential to better understand how health and mortality outcomes across the adult life course are shaped by US state contexts. Details and submission instructions are at this link. Proposals are due January 10, 2020.

CFDR Working GroupsCFDR working groups are resuming soon. If you're interested in presenting, please contact Kara Joyner (kjoyner@bgsu.edu) to present in the Add Health working group, Danielle Kuhl (dckuhl@bgsu.edu) to present in the Criminology working group, and Karen Guzzo (kquzzo@bgsu.edu) to present in the Grant Application working group.
