The Population Reference Bureau (PRB) has announced that the 2020-2021 U.S. Policy Communication Training Program is now open for applications. Eligibility criteria and instructions on how to apply are here: www.prb.org/work-with-us/fellowships/u-s-policy-communication-training-program/. Applications close February 17, 2020.

Call for Proposals: National Council on Family Relations – due March 2nd

The 2020 conference will be held in St. Louis, Missouri, November 11-14 and the theme is "Family Expansions, Expanding Families: Contouring Family Science's Negative Spaces." The call for proposals and submission instructions are at this link. Preliminary conference information is here: <https://www.ncfr.org/ncfr-2020>.

Affiliates and Students: Acknowledgment Statement Required for Manuscripts and Presentations

Affiliates and students at NICHD-funded population centers are required to acknowledge population infrastructure support in all of their papers and presentations, including those in which the first author is not a CFDR affiliate. Such acknowledgment is critical to convey the impact of federal funding on advances in research. If you have not already done so, please add the statement provided at this link to your manuscripts and presentations.
