NIMHD Health Disparities Research Institute Program

The National Institute on Minority Health and Health Disparities (NIMHD) will host the Health Disparities Research Institute (HDRI) from August 3-7, 2020 at the NIH campus. The HDRI supports the research career development of promising early-career minority health and health disparities research scientists. The program will feature lectures, mock grant reviews, seminars, and small group discussions. It will also include sessions with NIH scientific staff engaged in related health disparities research across the various institutes and centers. For questions or more information, visit: <https://nimhd.nih.gov/programs/edu-training/hd-research-institute>. The HDRI application portal opens Monday, February 3rd.

NCFR Olson Grant Opportunity – Applications due March 31

The National Council on Family Relations (NCFR) and David H. Olson, Ph.D., announce the creation of the NCFR Olson Grant: Bridging Research, Theory, and Practice. This new $10,000 annual grant will be available to current NCFR members working to creatively contribute to the discipline of Family Science by uniting research, theory, and practice in their work. Proposals will be reviewed and a recipient selected by July 1, 2020. The recipient will present their work at the 2021 NCFR Annual Conference.
