

CFDR Update: March 13, 2020

Call for Papers: PSID User Conference 2020

The Panel Study of Income Dynamics User Conference will provide new and experienced researchers with a forum to present preliminary results and to obtain comments and feedback from experienced PSID data users and PSID study staff. Submissions are welcome on any topic, from researchers in any field, that use data from the PSID or its supplements. Call for papers: psid.org/CallForPapers. The submission deadline is June 1, 2020.

Grant Opportunity from the William T. Grant Foundation

The next deadline to apply for a William T. Grant Foundation Research Grant is May 6, 2020. They emphasize two focus areas: reducing inequality and improving the use of research evidence. Please visit their website to learn more.

Speaker Series Cancelled

Due to the Coronavirus we have cancelled the remaining two seminars but we hope to reschedule the speakers in the next academic year.

Affiliates: Recent Publications or Presentations? New Working Papers?

To help us maintain an up-to-date website and to facilitate information collection for our required progress reports, please send us any new working papers and let us know about recent publications and/or presentations.