

CFDR Update: January 29, 2021

Call for Proposals: National Council on Family Relations – due March 1, 2021

The 2021 conference will be held in Baltimore, MD, November 3-6 and the theme is "The Science of Families: Nurturing Hope, Happiness, & Health." The call for proposals and submission instructions are at this link: 2021 NCFR Annual Conference | National Council on Family Relations.

Call for Submissions: Special Issue of Social Sciences

The aim of this special issue, "Divorce and Life Course", is to provide a 21st century update on research surrounding divorce. The editor invites submissions from the range of social science disciplines, employing either a macro or micro focus, and a variety of qualitative, quantitative, or mixed methods approaches. Those interested in having a piece of work considered for inclusion in this special issue should send a 300-500 word abstract to Teresa M. Cooney, Special Issue Editor, at teresa.cooney@ucdenver.edu by April 1. The deadline for submission of completed papers for peer review will be November 1, 2021. More information is at this link.

Speaker Series – Wednesday, February 10The Social Roots of High School Suicide ClustersSeth Abrutyn, PhD

Department of Sociology, University of British Columbia

Wednesday, February 10, 12:30-1:30 pm, online via Zoom