

CFDR Update: May 21, 2021

Early-Release Data from PSID's Child Development Supplement

NICHD-funded researchers at the University of Michigan are offering early access to new data from the Child Development Supplement \(CDS\) of the Panel Study on Income Dynamics (PSID), the longest running household study in the world. These preliminary data provide caregiver-reported information on how children and teens fared during the first months of the COVID-19 pandemic.

CFDR Summer Workshops

All workshops will be online from 12:30-1:30 pm

- June 28 Analyzing Data Collected with Complex Survey Design
- July 26 Making Graphs and Tables Using Excel
- August 16 Panel Study on Income Dynamics: The Child Development Supplement (CDS) and the Transition into Adulthood Supplement (TAS)

Affiliates: New Working Papers? Recent Publications or Presentations?

To help us maintain an up-to-date website and to facilitate information collection for our required progress reports, please send us any new working papers and let us know about recent publications and/or presentations.
