

CFDR Update: May 6, 2022

Summer Workshop Series

- May 23 Introduction to the National Survey of Family Growth (NSFG), Hsueh-Sheng Wu – 1:00 pm-2:00 pm
- June 13 Multiple Imputations, Hsueh-Sheng Wu – 1:00 pm-2:00 pm.
- July 11 Key Stata Commands for Constructing Variables, Hsueh-Sheng Wu – 1:00 pm-2:00 pm
-

Call for Papers: Frontiers in Public Health Special Issue – Due July 15th

Frontiers in Public Health is now accepting manuscripts for a special issue on “Geographic Inequalities in Health and Mortality: Factors Contributing to Trends and Differentials,” which is being co-edited by Irma Elo (University of Pennsylvania) and Shannon Monnat (Syracuse University). More information:

frontiersin.org/research-topics/31083/geographic-inequalities-in-health-and-mortality-factors-contributing-to-trends-and-differentials

Free Workshop on Monitoring the Future data – July 27-30

The ICPSR Summer Program includes this free workshop on the Monitoring the Future (MTF) project (<http://monitoringthefuture.org/>), a long-term epidemiologic and etiologic study of substance use among the nation's youth and adults. Apply using the Short Workshop Registration Portal Deadline: May 20th.
