

CFDR Update: June 24, 2022

Call for Applications: Emerging Poverty Scholars Fellowship – Due July 11

The Institute for Research on Poverty (IRP) at the University of Wisconsin–Madison invites applications from junior scholars from underrepresented racial and ethnic populations for its 2022-2024 Emerging Poverty Scholars Fellowship program. Proposals are invited from Ph.D.-holding poverty scholars from racial and ethnic groups that are underrepresented in academia. More information and application instructions or read more at this link.

National Neighborhood Data Archive

The National Neighborhood Data Archive (NaNDA) is a useful resource for neighborhood characteristics including physical, social and economic environments indicators such as access to grocery stores, pharmacies, health care, broadband, traffic, social services, schools, political partisanship as well as socioeconomic indicators. <https://www.openicpsr.org/openicpsr/nanda>

Funding Opportunity from the William T. Grant Foundation

- Focus Areas: (1) reducing inequality and (2) improving the use of research evidence in ways that benefit youth
- Award amount: $100,000 to $600,000 for 2-3 years of support
- Letters of Inquiry: Three per year: January, May, and August. The next deadline for LOIs is August 3, 2022.

Application guidelines are at <http://wtgrantfoundation.org/grants/research-grants>.

CFDR Workshop on Key Stata Commands for Constructing Variables – Monday, July 11

Instructor: Hsueh-Sheng Wu
Monday, July 11, 1:00 – 2:00 pm
CFDR Conference Room, 7C Williams
