

CFDR Update: June 30, 2023

New Survey of Income and Program Participation Data Available

The U.S. Census Bureau released data from the 2022 Survey of Income and Program Participation (SIPP). The SIPP is a longitudinal survey that provides comprehensive information about income and assistance program participation of individuals and households in the United States. The survey collects data and measures change in characteristics like economic well-being, family dynamics, education, assets, health insurance, child care and food security. Read more.

BGSU/OSU Graduate Student Conference on Population – November 3rd

The annual BGSU/OSU Graduate Student Conference on Population will take place at Ohio State University on Friday, November 3, 2023. Watch for the call for proposals in August.

Penn State's 31st Annual Symposium on Family Issues, Oct. 23-24, 2023

"Immigration Policy and Immigrant Families" Visit their website for a detailed description of the symposium and to register.

Affiliates and Students: Acknowledgment Statement Required for Manuscripts and Presentations

Affiliates and students at NICHD-funded population centers are required to acknowledge population infrastructure support in all of their papers and presentations, including those in which the first author is not a CFDR affiliate. Such acknowledgment is critical to convey the impact of federal funding on advances in research. If you have not already done so, please add the statement provided at this link to your manuscripts and presentations.
