

CFDR Update: July 14, 2023

---

NIH Scientific Workshop: Reproductive Life Planning and Pregnancy for Sexual and Gender Minority (SGM) Communities – July 19-20

This two-day virtual workshop brings together experts in research on reproductive health among SGM populations to highlight existing knowledge and identify research and training gaps related to the reproductive life planning and health needs of SGM communities. Agenda, speakers, and additional details are available on the registration page for the workshop.

---

Grant Opportunity: Horowitz Foundation

The Horowitz Foundation for Social Policy is now accepting applications for 2024 grants. They award grants for outstanding research by emerging scholars whose work addresses contemporary issues in the social sciences. Awards are valued at $10,000. Click here for more information about criteria and eligibility. The application deadline for this cycle is December 1, 2024.

---

Affiliates and Students: Acknowledgment Statement Required for Manuscripts and Presentations

Affiliates and students at NICHD-funded population centers are required to acknowledge population infrastructure support in all of their papers and presentations, including those in which the first author is not a CFDR affiliate. Such acknowledgment is critical to convey the impact of federal funding on advances in research. If you have not already done so, please add the statement provided at this link to your manuscripts and presentations.

---