RSF Pipeline Grants Competition – Proposals due November 1, 2023

The Russell Sage Foundation (RSF), in partnership with the Economic Mobility and Opportunity program at the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation (BMGF), seeks to promote diversity by prioritizing applications from scholars who are underrepresented in the social sciences. This initiative is designed to support early-career tenure-track scholars, and to promote diversity. Please click here for the full RFP, including example research questions.

Call for Applications: National Poverty Fellows Program

The National Poverty Fellows Program offers talented postdoctoral researchers an opportunity to participate in a federal government-university partnership. The goal of the program is both to build the capacity of researchers to conduct high-quality policy-relevant research on poverty and inequality in the U.S. and to contribute to the effective use of research and scientific knowledge in the formation of public policy. For a general overview and the application process, see <https://www.irp.wisc.edu/national-poverty-fellows-program-call-for-applications-for-the-2024-2024-fellowship-year-due-11-27-2023/>. Applications are due November 27, 2023.
