

---

Subject Areas covered in Add Health

---

1	chronic and disabling conditions	17	violence
2	injury	18	delinquency, criminal offending, and involvement with the criminal justice system
3	mental health status (focus on depression)	19	education history and high school transcripts
4	suicidal intentions/thoughts	20	work experiences and military service
5	health-service access and use	21	relationships (parents, teachers, friends, romantic partners)
6	height	22	sexual behavior
7	weight	23	sexually transmitted infections
8	blood pressure (available 2009)	24	contraception
9	biomarkers for metabolic, immune and inflammatory processes (available 2009)	25	pregnancy
10	medications (available 2009)	26	children and parenting
11	personality	27	household composition
12	religiosity and spirituality	28	neighborhood and school characteristics
13	sleep patterns	29	Biomarkers
14	physical activity	30	Birth and childhood data
15	diet	31	Cause of Death
16	substance use/abuse

---