About the Speaker
Susan Brownmiller is an author and feminist activist, best known for her groundbreaking book Against Her Will: Men, Women, and Rape, which in 1995 was selected by the New York Public Library as one of the 100 most important books of the 20th century. Brownmiller worked at Newsweek, ABC-TV News and as a freelancer for the Village Voice. She organized the Ladies Home Journal sit-in in 1970, and helped organize the New York Radical Feminist speak-out and conference on rape in 1971. Her other books include: Shirley Chisholm, Femininity, Waverly Place, and In Our Time: Memoir of a Revolution.
