

Violence Against WOC in the US

ACS 3000 103W 41015 | ONLINE | 6W2 6/24-8/2

American Culture Studies Topics Course: Violence Against Women of Color in the US.

This course will discuss violence in its many forms--gendered violence, racialized violence, reproductive violence, police brutality, and misogyny—as it has been historically perpetuated across cultures and around the world. Using a feminist approach, we will also explore the effects of capitalism, postcolonialism, xenophobia, heteronormativity, androcentrism, patriarchy, intersectionality and exceptionalism on women of color as well as the LGBTQ community and those with disabilities.

This course is cross listed with WS 3000 101W 41927.
