Sex, Gender, and the Cold War

Prof. DePasquale
ACS 3000 104 W (41067) combined with
WS 3000 102 W (42946)
Second Summer Session, Online Course

Course Description: The course would examine issues surrounding gender and sexuality in American society after WWII. Topics examined include domesticity, consumerism and the invention of the nuclear family; McCarthyism, the Lavender Scare and "the closet"; bombshells, bikinis, and "sex kittens"; queer femmes on screen and national identity. Contact Diana DePasquale at dianad@bgsu.edu for more information.