This course uses witches and witchcraft to explore how issues of race, class, sexuality, and gender have been understood throughout the history of the feminist movement in the U.S. We will explore texts from the U.S. suffrage movement, radical second-wave feminists, and modern-day feminist witches working to hex the patriarchy! Most assignments will allow you to choose from traditional academic writing and arts-based methods to engage with the texts from the course.