Tuesday Feb. 4, 2014 @ 3:00-4:30 pm in Shatzel Hall 101, BGSU

RECEPTION FOR VEA KAISER
2014 MAX KADE WRITER IN RESIDENCE

Vea Kaiser serves as Max Kade Writer in Residence in the Department of German, Russian & East Asian Languages at Bowling Green State University during this semester. She received her MA in German philology from the University of Vienna in 2012 and her second MA in Ancient Greek in 2014. Born in St. Pölten, Lower Austria in 1988, she has already had success as an author and playwright. She published her first novel, Blasmusikpop [Brass Band Pop or How Science Came to the Mountains] in 2012 and promptly received numerous prizes for it. Her first play The Argonauts just premiered in Vienna on January 14, 2014.

Please help us welcome Ms. Kaiser to the Bowling Green campus at a reception in her honor on Tuesday, February 4 from 3:00-4:30pm.