THE ICS LATIN AMERICAN & LATINO STUDIES CLUSTER

PRESENTS

2 TALKS BY NICARAGUAN HISTORIAN
ANTONIO MONTE CASABLANCA
MONDAY, OCTOBER 1ST, 2018

Pallister Room (Jerome Library)

3:30 to 4:30 pm
From Populism to Para-Militarism in 3 Months: A Brief Description of the Current Crisis in Nicaragua

7:00 to 8:30 pm
Campesinos, estudiantes, artistas y empresarios: Articulaciones y rupturas políticas en Nicaragua a partir del 18 de abril

Antonio Monte Casablanca is a historian with the Instituto Interdisciplinario de Ciencias Sociales at the Universidad Centroamericana in Managua, Nicaragua. He has recently published Paisaje/Sujeto/Inversión/Nación. Guías turísticas de Nicaragua: 1892-1940 (2017), an insightful analysis of the rhetoric used by the Nicaraguan elite during the years 1892-1940 to attract both investors and tourism to the country, which in turn shaped the political discourse on the nation.

Contact Dr. Valeria Grinberg Pla
Professor of Latin American Literature & Cultural Studies - vgrinb@bgsu.edu

BOTH TALKS ARE FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

Sponsored by: History Department, World Languages and Cultures, College of Arts and Sciences, University Libraries. Co-sponsored by: School of Cultural and Critical Studies, International Studies.