Appendix 1: History of La Maison Française
I. Title

This institution shall be known as “La Maison Française”.

II. Preamble

Upon the conception of La Maison Française we, the residents and those of us who have the care of the Maison, have found it necessary to state the purposes and objectives that we hope to achieve through our living experiences here. First and foremost, we shall serve as an extension of the academic endeavor. By this we mean that it shall be our goal to promote the French language and cultures of the French-speaking world for our student residents by providing the possibility to live in an atmosphere created especially for the purpose of promulgating the French language and cultures of the French-speaking world. Secondly, we shall consider it our responsibility to serve the promotion the cultures of the French-speaking world on the Bowling Green State University campus. We shall increase international understanding and goodwill by sharing our facilities with exchange students, especially visitors from France and Francophone countries. We shall provide direct language and cultural experience for interested undergraduate students, graduate students, faculty of Bowling Green State University and the francophile community at large. By our presence on campus, we shall provide enhancement of the study of French and act as ambassador of goodwill between the international community and Bowling Green students.

La Maison Française is a residential unit of the Department of Romance Languages of Bowling Green State University. Our efforts at living French language and the cultures of the French-speaking world are an integral part of the programs and events of the Department of Romance Languages and our interests are those of the Department. We consider the serving of those interests to be our most important responsibility. In this respect we are not a dormitory, nor a sorority house, but a part of the academic institution. It is not our intention to serve as an alternative to dormitory living nor as a social club, but as an extension of the academic experience. We therefore express our desire that residents of La Maison Française be recruited from among those students who wish to participate fully in the aforementioned activities and who share our goal of furthering the cause of French language and culture. We as residents and officials intend to make our experience at La Maison Française a unique and profitable one by doing so.

III. Residency

In order to live in La Maison Française:

A. A student should have completed French 102, or three years of high school French, with a B average.

B. New residents for the fall semester shall submit an application to the Faculty Advisor prior to being accepted as a resident.
C. During the Fall and Spring Semesters all eligible new residents shall be approved by the House Director and the Faculty Advisor prior to being accepted as a resident.

D. Residents of La Maison Française shall be expected to maintain a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.0 during their residency. If a resident’s cumulative GPA falls below 3.0 a one-semester probation status will be set by the Faculty Advisor. Expectations for study habits and behavior in the house will be mutually agreed upon by the resident and the Faculty Advisor. Failure on the resident’s part to fulfill the expectations outlined in the probation agreement will result in the resident losing her privilege to live in the house.

E. Residents are strongly encouraged to enroll in French courses while living in La Maison Française.

F. Students shall promise a willingness to participate actively in the cultural and social activities of La Maison Française. Residents shall speak French when in the public areas of the house. In order to maintain an atmosphere of high standards in La Maison Française, residents shall behave in a mature fashion, exhibit good manners and consideration for others. They shall respect and be courteous to our staff. Residents shall accept responsibility for and take pride in La Maison Française as if it were their own home.

G. Residents shall be held responsible at all times for all fees and duties having to do with the operation of La Maison Française. In order to be fair to all residents, exceptions will be granted by the Faculty Advisor and Office of Residence Life Advisor only in very special circumstances which can be appropriately documented.

H. Rudeness, lack of consideration for others’ property or rights, causing general and/or specific disruption among other residents or the staff of the house shall not be tolerated. Residents who fail to comply with the letter or spirit of the constitution shall be notified of their transgressions by the House Director and/or House Assistant. Repeated violation of the expectations outlined within the constitution shall result in a review of the student’s residency status within the house by the Faculty Advisor and Office of Residence Life Advisor. A student whose behavior is seen as disruptive to the living-learning environment within the house may be removed as part of the normal judicial hearing processes as outlined within the Code of Student Conduct.

Students violating house and/or University policy shall be responsible to this constitution, the Code of Student Conduct, and Community Living Standards of the Office of Residence Life. Judicial processes may happen concurrently at the discretion of the Faculty Advisor, Office of Residence Life Advisor, and the Office of Student Life.

This Constitution Ratified on this sixth day of May, of the year 2003 by the French House Advisory Board (Advocates).
La Maison Française was dedicated on October 4, 1971. Through the efforts of Theodore Wakefield, Paul Wurzburger, the Honorary French Consul in Cleveland, made a gift of $50,000 to furnish La Maison Française as a residence where students could become acquainted with French culture, learn about French customs, and increase their knowledge of the language. Professor Micheline Ghibaudo was named the first Faculty Director of the Maison, a post which she held until her retirement in 1990.

In the years following its dedication, supporters continued to endow La Maison Française, enabling it to fulfill its mission. Mrs. Henry Dodge assisted in the establishment of the Dolly Donnell Fund to support cultural activities in La Maison Française. The late Mrs. Donnell’s interest in the French House has been continued by her daughter Mrs. Susan Konkel. Also with the help of Mrs. Dodge, the Paul Wurzburger scholarship was created to assist residents of La Maison Française in studying in France.

A ten-year rededication ceremony was held in 1982. A full week of French activities ended with an address by Jacques Royet, French Consul in Detroit, a reception for French House alumnae and buffet dinner dance.

In 1992, the twentieth year of La Maison Française was celebrated. The French Consul in Washington, Jean Dufay, came to La Maison Française to confer the Order of the Academic Palms upon Professor Micheline Ghibaudo. He was accompanied by the French Honorary Consul in Cleveland, Albert Borowitz.

In October 2002, the thirtieth anniversary of the Maison Française was celebrated with a reception for residents, university faculty and administrators, and Advisory Board members.
