Independent study courses (ART 470, ARTC 470, ARTD 470, ARTE 470, ARTH 470) allow advanced students possessing a high level of motivation to work closely with a faculty member on advanced research or study not possible within regular course offerings. Independent study should not be sought as:
   a) a substitution for a regular class
   b) making up missing hours needed for graduation
   c) a means to use studio space after graduation.

The approval signatures of the supervising faculty member, the division chair and the director of the School of Art are required.

Independent study proposals must be submitted to the Main Office (1000 Fine Arts Bldg.) by Friday of week 14 of the semester prior to when the independent study is to begin. No late proposals will be accepted.
