In 1,000 words or less, describe why this person deserves recognition for the "Spirit of BG" Award:

Faith deserves the Spirit of BG award because of her hard work and dedication to further the relationship between classified staff and the administration. She is someone all classified staff know they can come to for an honest answer to their questions. She is an advocate for staff on this campus and Firelands campus.

Recently Faith has been instrumental in bringing back the → leave Bank program. She has worked tirelessly to get this program written and implemented while working with the committee and HR for several months.

She has also been diligently working on a revised classified staff handbook. Again with her committee, discussing each section with HR to ensure staff is treated fairly.

Lastly - she does not only deserve this award for these recent actions - but because for 30 years she has dedicated countless hours to CSC and BGSC.
