In 1,000 words or less, describe why this person deserves recognition for the "Spirit of BG" Award:

During the period of COVID shutdown and the subsequent re-opening of Campus, Cynthia "Cindy" Diller and Chad Warner kept the Campus Postal Services / package receiving area functioning smoothly and efficiently. They certainly went above and beyond to ensure that mail and packages were easily available for pick-up each day during the shutdown so the rest of campus could continue to do the jobs they needed to do either while still on-campus or remotely. If Cindy or Chad were needing to adjust the hours of operation for any reason, they gave plenty of notice to everyone so others could adjust their schedules for pick-ups/drop offs if needed also. When campus began to re-open, they checked with areas to see if they were ready to begin receiving mail/packages or not and then accommodated each area accordingly. For those of us who were ready, they let us know when we could expect pick-up and delivery to re-start and then made sure it happened.

"Spirit of BG" Nomination for October – Debbie Carden

I believe Debbie Carden is very deserving of the "Spirit of BG" award. Whenever I go into her office, although it is not very often now due to Covid 19, she is always very welcoming. She seems to be the heart of Academic and Student Services. Debbie deals with many things including the day to day operations within the office, scheduling appointments for our students with their advisor, student questions (which are a lot), and several other duties. She does this all with a smile and a friendly voice. I feel that there is not anyone more deserving than Debbie. She has been working at BGSU Firelands for around 10 years. She previously worked as the campus Switchboard Operator. During this pandemic, she is the only person I can trust to answer her phone every time, I know, I answer the BGSU Firelands phone daily. She is always there for students, faculty, and staff, for whatever they may need.

Thank you for your consideration,

Sheryl Smith
